

SANTA CLAUS

Announcement....

With the compliments of the season to all our readers, we ask you the question of the hour—WHAT ABOUT CHRISTMAS? The children are asking it with wondering and hopeful expectations of what Santa Claus is likely to bring them. The older people are asking it, not so much in speculation regarding the remembrances that Christmas will bring to them, but rather as an inquiry as to how they are to provide suitable and satisfactory presents for relatives and friends without too heavy a drain upon their time and purse. May we help you to solve the problem and put you in the way of doing your Christmas shopping with pleasure, satisfaction and economy? Our Holiday Stock this season, is a marvel of beauty and elegance; its new features are innumerable, and its variety almost unlimited. We are offering a stock that will meet the wants of everybody. High priced presents, low priced presents, useful, ornamental, practical or pretty; remember we have the best of the kind—and all kinds. We offer the advantage of selection that can only be found in an extensive showing of first-class Holiday Goods. New novelties are everywhere, and the latest and best of everything is the predominating feature of our display for the Christmas season of 1918. We take the liberty of making a suggestion regarding the best time to do your Christmas Shopping, and earnestly urge you to do it AT ONCE. There is much to lose and nothing to gain by waiting. Come early while the pick is the choicest, avoid the crowd and make your selections at leisure and in comfort, from a full and complete assortment. We know that a visit will convince you that we offer more and better inducements in quality, variety and reasonable prices than you can find elsewhere. We take pleasure in pleasing customers and will do all that lies in our power to help you to just the right article at the right price, so that you may leave our store glad that you came, and perfectly satisfied with your purchases in every respect. We extend a cordial invitation to all to come in and see our brilliant array of Holiday Goods, without feeling that the slightest obligation to purchase is incurred. Hoping to see every reader at our store at an early date, and wishing one and all a very Merry Christmas, we remain,

Local and Otherwise.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving. Grant Holden is in Detroit this week on business.

Roy Phillips and wife visited relatives in Sarnia over Sunday.

J. I. Rosenthal was at Port Huron and Detroit the first of the week.

Attorney Charles Bowles, of Detroit, was in Yale last Thursday on business.

Mrs. Martha Brown, of Columbiaville visited Yale relatives and friends over Sunday.

Report of First National Bank of Avoca appears in this issue of the Expositor.

Y. M. C. A. County Secretary Liechtenfeld, of St. Clair, was in Yale on Friday last.

Billy Vanskivar, of Detroit, visited his mother and young friends in Yale over Sunday.

Henry Pearce and daughter Mayme spent Sunday with Port Huron friends and relatives.

Mrs. T. H. Parkinson has decided to spend the winter with her children in Detroit, Toledo and the west.

Dr. A. Pollock has been confined to his home for the past week with an attack of pneumonia. We are pleased to note that the Dr. is on the improve.

E. W. Mercer and wife motored to Flint Saturday last. Ed returned by train Monday morning leaving his wife at Flint for a week's visit with relatives.

R. S. Campbell, of Port Huron, was in Yale Wednesday for the first time in six months. During all these months he has been tied down to work on the draft board.

Henry P. Ohmer, whom we noted in last week's issue of the Expositor as being sick with the "flu" in Detroit, returned to his home in Yale Tuesday evening. He is still quite weak, but is getting along nicely.

There will be a grand Thanksgiving ball at the Auditorium, Yale, Thursday evening, Nov. 28, to which the public is cordially invited. A special four piece orchestra from Finzel's, Detroit, will furnish music. Bill $1.50, plus war tax.

After a couple of weeks of beautiful fall weather, accompanied with sunshine and warmth, rain starts in Saturday morning and continues for four days. Wednesday opened up bright again, but the roads are left in rather bad condition.

The Board of Health for the city of Yale held a meeting Saturday at noon and lifted the ban which has been held over Yale for the past four weeks. The schools, churches, theatres, show houses, pool rooms and all public gatherings are now free to operate.

Darwin Ostrander, who had his arm broken in four places and his body badly burned several weeks ago, when his threshing outfit was destroyed by fire, was brought home from Port Huron hospital last week. His condition is such that very little can be done for him.

Miss Phebe Roy, teacher in the first grade of our public schools, had a slight stroke on Tuesday afternoon. She was taken to her home and medical aid was summoned. On Wednesday morning her condition was improved enough so she was able to resume her duties.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist Protestant church on Thursday evening, Nov. 28, to which the public is most cordially invited. Rev. Merrill, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church will deliver the thanksgiving address. Special music for the occasion is being prepared.

On Friday evening, Nov. 23, Hon. L. C. Cramton will deliver a patriotic address at the Auditorium, Yale, Mich. Congressman Cramton has just recently returned from the European battle fields, and is sure to give out some good, first-hand information concerning the conditions of matters in general about our boys who are over seas. It will pay you to attend this lecture, which starts at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

J. F. Cryslar's auction sale last Saturday was attended by a large number of people, and nearly $3,000 were realized from furniture, bedding, rugs, etc. A large amount of stock is yet to be sold and it was announced that another sale will be held on Saturday, Nov. 30, beginning at one o'clock p. m. sharp. Everything to be sold is practically new, and besides the hotel outfit Mr. Cryslar has several horses to offer for sale. Read his ad in this issue.

Tuesday and Wednesday evening of this week marked the re-opening of Princess Theatre after the lifting of the "flu" ban. The managers of this popular amusement place had a treat in store for their patrons. The seven-reel play, "To Hell With the Kaiser" was the attraction, and the theatre was filled for each performance. Cavanagh Bros. inform us that they intend to put on some of the best shows ever seen in Yale this winter, and assure our movie fans some rare treats. For Thanksgiving day, matinee and evening, they have secured the play, "Under Handicap," which is considered one of the best features Harold Lockwood ever made. Plan to attend one of the shows next Thursday.

GRAND

....Thanksgiving Ball....

At the Auditorium, Yale, Mich.

Thursday Eve., Nov. 28

Boys, this is one time we are going to put on a BIG dance. It is some time since we have had a chance to step around a little and in the interval we have licked the Hun, so lets all get together and celebrate this most auspicious Thanksgiving by one of the biggest dances in the history of the town.

A special four-piece orchestra, furnished by Wm. Finzel, of Detroit, will furnish the music for this occasion.

Everybody cordially invited to attend and help make this an occasion to remember.

BILL, $1.50, plus war tax.

Wm. F. BAKER, Mgr.

Floyd Ferguson was in Detroit last Saturday.

Nearly all of the "flu" patients are up and around.

On account of the Richmond schools being closed again, Jessie McCall is at home.

Henderson Stock Company, the old favorites, will be at Auditorium, Yale, week of Dec. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wark were at Brown City on Tuesday attending the funeral of a relative.

Elam Sloat goes to Port Huron this week to spend the winter at the home of his son, Charles Sloat.

Mrs. Edward Elber has been entertaining her mother, Mrs. Jacob Holmes of Kingston, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton drove to Battle Creek on Friday of last week to spend Sunday with their son Clifford.

The Expositor is in receipt of Gov. Sleeper's Thanksgiving proclamation. Thursday, Nov. 28th, is designated as the day to give thanks.

The Loyal Women, Dr. Alice Doering's class in the Presbyterian Sunday school, met at the home of Mrs. Roy Fuller on Friday evening last and spent a social evening.

There will be a grand Thanksgiving ball at the New Cadillac Hall, Emmett, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27th, to which the public is cordially invited. Music by Gould's 3-piece orchestra. Bill $1.00.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bert Jardine left Tuesday evening for Los Angeles, Calif., to make their home for the winter at least. "Jardy" and wife have a host of friends in Yale, all of whom regret to have them leave, but all join with the Expositor in wishing them abundant prosperity in their new home in the land of sunshine and flowers.

....A Pair of Fine Shoes....

Such a Gift Will Please Every Woman

These extremely fashionable, long, slender lasts are especially acceptable and every pair is covered by a guarantee of satisfaction. Perfect fit and complete comfort are assured by the diversity of models and the wonderful range of sizes and widths. Durability is bespoken by the quality of the leathers used in their making. If you intend giving shoes for Christmas, or need a pair yourself, now is the most opportune time to buy. Women's shoes from $5 to $12.

Shoes for the Kiddies

Hardly any part of the youngster's apparel wears out so quickly as shoes. They should, therefore, be selected with greatest care, and with an eye to orthopedic value, as well. Parents like to buy their children's shoes here for they know they are getting the most suitable footwear for their boys and girls, at fair prices.

We have the things you need for THANKSGIVING.

Are you going to again try to carve that big fine Thanksgiving turkey with dull old carving knife? Are you not going to have your dinner table look "swell" when your guests sit down? We can sell you a carving knife that will "carve," and knives, forks and spoons for your table that will make it glitter and jingle to your joy. Come in and buy some. Our cutlery's the best; it stands the test.
